Thanks for visiting AIP!

The American Institute of Parliamentarians is an organization dedicated to helping you have more efficient meetings. AIP is unlike other parliamentary study organizations: here, you will learn different ways to handle problems, based on a variety of parliamentary authorities, making you a more effective member, parliamentarian, or presiding officer for those organizations to which you belong.

We hope you will look around and learn more about us. If you're looking to expand your parliamentary education, check out our fun quiz on procedure or study a quick lesson on ranking motions.

To learn more about the differences between parliamentary authorities, see the page "Ten Key Differences Between Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised and the AIP Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure."

If you have a general question about parliamentary procedure, a professional parliamentarian will answer a question for you if click this link.

Or, if you are looking for a professional parliamentarian to assist you or your organization, click the "Find a Parliamentarian" button.

Finally, if you think the benefits AIP offers to visitors are appealing, check out the Join Now page to become a member. We welcome you!

Please do not hesitate to contact me at President@aipparl.org if I can provide any assistance.

In AIP friendship,

Kay Allison Crews, CPP
President
