

AIP'S PARLI "PRO" FACT OF THE WEEK

ROLE OF THE PARLIAMENTARIAN

The parliamentarian serves as the adviser to the president or presiding officer on procedure. He/she is hired or appointed based on his/her knowledge of parliamentary procedure. The parliamentarian does not make rulings.

For more information and suggestions for additional conduct and rules, visit AIP's "Articles of Interest" and click the "Electronic Meetings" compilation of articles.

WWW.AIPPARL.ORG

