

Primary Amendments and Secondary Amendments

Primary amendments, when adopted, amend the text of the motion that it is amending.

Secondary amendments, when adopted, amend the primary amendment. The chair should, when announcing amendments before debate and voting, state the effect if the motion to amend (primary or secondary) is adopted.

For more information, please visit www.aipparl.org