1. Emblem. The AIP official emblem shall be an insigne consisting of a wreath with a gavel superimposed, the head of the gavel to be in a raised position and placed at the left side of the wreath. The capital letters AIP shall be at the top of the wreath in a circle segment, as set forth below.

2. Trademarks. The words American Institute of Parliamentarians and the Wreath and Gavel design are trademarks of the American Institute of Parliamentarians.

3. Use of Emblem and Trademarks.
   3.1 Chapters may use the AIP trademarks on stationery, membership cards, and other official documents.
   3.2 Use of the AIP trademarks in association with a publication shall be governed by rules adopted by the AIP Board of Directors (herein referred to as board).
   3.3 Individual members, with current dues paid, are authorized to wear the AIP emblem.
   3.4 Use of the emblem shall be consistent with identification as a member and shall not imply endorsement or representation of AIP.
   3.5 Any use of trademarks or the emblem, which implies official representation of AIP, is prohibited unless specifically authorized by the board. Any dispute, regarding suitability of a use, shall be resolved by the board. Decisions of the board shall be final.

4. Colors. The AIP official colors shall be white for truth, blue for tradition, and gold for integrity. The official colors of AIP shall be Pantone Matching System (PMS) blue #294 and gold #124.

5. AIP Published Material. All authors of works published by AIP shall sign an agreement in a form approved by the board of directors. In AIP publications, no person shall be identified by more than one non-parliamentary title. The title shall be at the discretion of the individual.
   5.1 Material that is created, compiled, or edited at the sole direction of AIP shall remain the property of AIP, including copyright, royalties, and other rights relating to publication.
   5.2 Articles written for AIP publication may be reproduced by AIP in other formats with full attribution and without further permission from the author.
   5.3 Workshop materials created for AIP events shall remain the property of the presenter.

6. Sales at AIP events. The board may permit individuals to promote or sell parliamentary materials at AIP functions, and may grant the same privilege of promotion or sale to commercial organizations involved in AIP projects or the production of parliamentary materials.
7. Parliamentary Law Emphasis Month. April shall be Parliamentary Law Emphasis Month and this month shall be recognized as an annual activity of AIP.

8. Membership.

   8.1 Benefits. Each member shall receive a subscription or have online access to the Parliamentary Journal and The Communicator. The member’s choice on the form of access to these publications will be indicated on the annual dues notice. Members shall also have online access to the AIP Directory.

   8.2 Publication of Personal Information.

      8.2.1 Members shall indicate on the membership renewal form if personal information shall not be published in the AIP Directory.

      8.2.2 It is the policy of AIP that AIP activities which list individual names shall include all easily ascertainable parliamentary credentials. This policy does not apply to the AIP Directory which lists only AIP credentials.

   8.3 Commercial Use of Personal Information. It shall be grounds for expulsion for a member in any category to make commercial use of the personal information listed in the AIP Directory.

   8.4 Donor Recognition. Members who have donated $25.00 or more in supplemental fees above their dues in any category of membership shall be designated as such in the AIP Communicator.

9. Meetings of the Membership.

   9.1 Location of Meetings. The board shall determine the site of the annual session based on bids submitted from chapters or its own investigation. The board shall make a reasonable effort to rotate the annual session throughout the geographical area of the United States and Canada.

   9.2 Annual Session Coordinator. The annual session coordinator shall be appointed by the president with the approval of the board.

   9.3 Responsibilities of the Annual Session Coordinator. The coordinator shall be responsible for the overall planning of the annual session. The coordinator shall:

      9.3.1 submit a proposed budget to the budget and finance committee including proposed fees; the proposed budget and fees shall be approved by the board.

      9.3.2 be the primary contact with the host hotel.

      9.3.3 file a report on the annual session including an accounting of the annual session finances, within two months after the adjournment, to the president for submission to the board at its next meeting.

   9.4 Annual Reports of Officers and Committees. All annual reports will be sent to the annual session coordinator at least thirty days before the annual session for inclusion in the annual session materials.

   9.5 Annual Session Finances. The annual session coordinator may recommend to the finance committee a donation to the host chapter based on their support and cooperation. This donation shall not exceed 35% (thirty-five) of the net surplus from the annual session and will be made as part of the final finance report on the annual session. This requirement for the session to be self-supporting does not mean that AIP cannot appropriate funds for the session, which shall be reimbursed to the AIP budget from the funds of the session.

   9.6 Annual Session Education Committee. The educational program at the annual session shall be the responsibility of a special committee consisting of the president, the annual session coordinator, and the education director.

   9.7 Robert W. English Lecture. The board may appoint a special committee to determine whether a Robert W. English Memorial Lecture shall be given at the annual session by a person committed to the ideas and ideals of Robert W. English.
